Parole Case Tracking System (PCTS)

The PCTS supports the adjudication of parole requests for individuals outside of the United States (US). The system generates notices, forms and authorizations for parole and re-paroles, denial and approval letters, requests for additional information, cables and memoranda that are sent to US embassies and DHS offices throughout the world. The system tracks the receipt of request and the status of each request and generates a wide demographic and statistical reports.

Input

GAS 20, ITEM 2

Information in the system consists of personal, identifying, and biographical information on applicants that is entered from the following forms:

- 1. I-131 "Application for Travel Document"
- 2. G-28 "Notice of Appearance as Attorney or Representative"

Additional information:

- 1. Supporting documentation
- 2. Texts of emails, letters and other documents
- 3. Narrative justification for decision
- 4. Adjudicator notes

DISPOSITION: Temporary. Delete/destroy when data has been entered into the Receipt File and verified. This disposition applies only to input documents that are not considered Receipt File or A-File content. (Input that becomes part of a Receipt File or A-File must be retained according to the specific retention schedules governing their disposition).

includes information on individuals requesting humanitarian and significant public benefit parole, contact information on the petitioner (public and/or attorneys), narrative justification for parole request, and notes, additional information and pertaining to the approval of parole.

DISPOSITION: Temporary. Delete/destroy twenty-five (25) years after final decision has been made on the individual case.

Output

AD Hoc reports GAS 20, ITEM 16

The system outputs include notices, forms and authorizations for parole and re-paroles, denial and approval letters, information requests, receipt letters, cables and memos that are sent to US embassies and DHS offices throughout the world and a wide range of demographics and statistical reports.

DISPOSITION: Temporary. Delete/destroy when no longer needed for reference purposes. This disposition applies only to output documents that are not considered Receipt File or A-File content. (Output that becomes part of a Receipt File or A-File must be retained according to the specific retention schedules governing their disposition).
